

Leadership for Managers Training Curriculum - 2026

This is a broad-spectrum leadership course for senior leaders, managers, supervisors, group leaders, and high potential professionals. The topics and training create a much higher caliber of leader. The course contains content not normally found in other leadership courses, such as body language, having principled accountability discussions, and behaviors that enhance trust.

The course is experiential and lively, including humorous stories, role playing examples, magic illusions, videos, and other ways to make the information memorable for the participants. Have fun while you learn vital skills.

This course can also be customized for family groups. Leadership teams can select topics for emphasis, and all content can be put in terms of the specific industry or location. The program is flexible in terms of time needed and content covered.
