

Navigating the Evolving Tariff Landscape: Insights from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce

Stephen P. McAllister

U.S. Chamber of Commerce

Stephen P. McAllister is the Vice President of the Eastern Region at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, where he oversees advocacy and engagement efforts across the six New England states, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, West Virginia, and Maryland. In this role, he travels extensively throughout the region, strengthening relationships with business leaders, trade associations, state and local chambers, and elected officials. He delivers presentations on the Chamber's policy priorities, programs, and grassroots resources, helping to advance its legislative and political objectives.

Steve brings a wealth of experience in both federal and state government. He previously served as Director of Advance for Rhode Island Governor Lincoln D. Chafee (D-RI) and as a Constituent and Community Liaison for U.S. Senator John E. Sununu (R-NH).

He holds a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science from Saint Anselm College and a Master's in Public Administration from the University of New Hampshire. A resident of Warwick, Rhode Island, Steve was elected to the Warwick City Council in 2016 and served as Council President until retiring from the council in 2025.
