

BIZ.
EXCHANGE

VIRTUAL COMMUNICATION: WORDS MATTER

Lorisa D. LaRocca, Esq.,
Partner,
Woods Oviatt Gilman LLP

Lorisa LaRocca is a Partner and chairperson of the firm's Labor & Employment Department. In this capacity, Lorisa concentrates her practice in all areas of labor and employment counseling and litigation. She routinely counsels organizations on all employment related matters, conducts employer trainings, represents clients in Division of Human Rights, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and Department of Labor investigations, audits, drafts and reviews employee handbooks, employment contracts and other employment related policies, and provides guidance to business clients on HR best practices. Lorisa has also developed a niche representing physicians in negotiations of their employment agreements and practice purchases.

Honors:

- Named a "Top Woman in Law" by The Daily Record
- Selected to the 2022 Power 20 Labor & Employment list
- Recognized by the Rochester Women's Network as one of Rochester's "Up and Coming Businesswomen" and as an "Up and Coming Attorney" in the Rochester area.
- Named a "Forty Under 40" and "Woman of Excellence" recipient by the Rochester Business Journal.

Other:

- Authored a "Human Resource Audit Guide" on behalf of the firm.
- Regular contributor and speaker for the Greater Rochester Chamber of Commerce, Monroe County Bar Association, Daily Record, Rochester Business Journal and Woods Oviatt Gilman sponsored client seminars, as well as several other organizations.